

The LECs operate an "essential facility", and should be required to accommodate other ISP firms that wish to purchase access from them. This wholesale provisioning stimulates competition and benefits consumers. Chairman Powell: Unless you protect the consumer you will be forcing us to have to pay higher prices and have limited options. Please do not sell out to BIG BUSINESS, at the expense of needed competition and the small businesses of our country. Thank you very much for your time.